

The Wide Landcare Future

Patrick O'Connor

The Wide Landcare Future

The Wide Landcare Future

Over 30 years, Landcare has grown into the largest environmental volunteer movement in the country.

The decade to 2030 is critical to addressing the complex climate and environmental challenges facing our communities, nation, and indeed the world.

There has never been a greater need for community Landcare.

SHAPING THE FUTURE

A ROADMAP FOR LANDCARE

Action between now and 2030 is critical for addressing the complex climate and environmental challenges facing our communities, nation, and indeed the world.

Ensuring the Landcare movement is well placed to meet the challenges of the coming decade.

The significant environmental, agricultural and community benefits of Landcare have been demonstrated over the past 30 years.

COLLABORATIVE DESIGN

With over 5,000
groups and an estimated 140,000 local volunteers, the strength of Landcare lies in the connections between its people and what they achieve together.

Landcarers are driven by a shared purpose and common values.

REGISTER YOUR INTEREST
www.nln.org.au/contact-us

The roadmap will be developed through a genuine consultative process across Australia, asking bold questions, providing all Landcarers a chance to contribute.